SEE® Brand Three Side Seal Pouches

Also known as a flat pouch, the 3 Side Seal is a pre-made pouch suitable for a wide range of applications.

BENEFITS

SEE brand three side seal pouches are available in a wide variety of barrier laminates, making them an ideal choice for brands and retailers across several industries. This convenient packaging format features three sides sealed and one open end for easy filling, ensuring products' freshness. Three side seal pouches are perfect for point of sales packaging, single serve, on-the-go snacks, or tester-size products. Customizable features such as resealable zippers, easy open tear notches, and hanging holes are also available. Versatile and functional, this packaging format mimics the functionality of a multi-use pouch. The three-side seal pouch is suitable for both vacuum sealing and freezing, making it an adaptable packaging solution.

- Can be vacuum-packed to achieve very long shelf-life.
- Resealable zippers & easy open tear notches: choose from a standard press-to-close or easy-use to keep products fresh.
- Euro slot for merchandising and point of sale displays.
- Food Grade Materials: All pouches made with highest quality materials in BRC accredited facility.
- Durable vacuum sealing and freezing: robust layers provide durability and puncture resistance during vacuum sealing and freezing processes.
